To: Prospective Buyers and Authorized Buyer Representatives
From: Business Strategy & Compliance – Patricia Internacional, Corp.
Subject: Buyer and Authorized Representative Prequalification Requirements

Good morning,

Thank you for your interest in purchasing commodities from Patricia Internacional, Corp.

Patricia Internacional, Corp. can source, structure and supply a variety of commodities from different origins and loading points, subject to availability and applicable commercial terms.

Before proceeding with pricing, product allocation, confirmation of availability, a formal quotation or the issuance of a commercial offer, we must complete our standard Buyer prequalification, KYC, compliance and due diligence process.

This procedure applies equally whether we are dealing directly with the end Buyer or with a broker, mandate holder, consultant, representative or authorized agent acting on behalf of the Buyer.

DOCUMENT SUBMISSION

Send the complete prequalification package to: Mayte.Ferrer@Patriciainternacional.com

The documentation will be reviewed by Business Strategy & Compliance before the matter is forwarded to the appropriate executive or commercial team.

Please provide the following information and documentation:

1. Buyer CIS / KYC Documentation

A complete and current Corporate Information Sheet (CIS) / Know Your Customer (KYC) package, including:

- Buyer's full legal name and registered office address;
- Certificate of Incorporation or equivalent registration information;
- Name, title and contact information of the authorized signatory;
- Contact information and details of the Buyer's attorney or legal adviser, where applicable;
- Banking information and bank coordinates, as appropriate to the stage of the transaction;
- Color scanned copy of the valid passport or official identity document of the authorized signatory.

2. Corporate Registration

A current copy of the following Buyer documents:

- Certificate of Incorporation;
- Commercial Registry;
- Articles of Association or equivalent corporate documentation, where applicable; and
- Any other document evidencing the Buyer's legal existence and identifying its authorized representatives.

3. Website and Corporate Information

Please provide the Buyer's official corporate website, together with any other publicly available corporate information that may assist us in completing our due diligence and compliance review.

If the Buyer does not maintain an active corporate website, please provide an explanation and additional corporate documentation evidencing the company's legitimate business activity.

4. Letter of Intent (LOI) / Purchase Requirements

A duly signed Letter of Intent (LOI) or equivalent purchase request clearly identifying the Buyer's requirements, including, as applicable:

- Commodity/Product: Exact product name, grade, specification and quality requirements;
- Origin: Preferred or required country of origin, where applicable;
- Quantity: Trial quantity and/or monthly quantity;

- Contract Duration: Spot purchase or long-term contract, including the proposed duration;
- Delivery Terms: FOB, CIF, CFR, TTO, TTT, TTV or another applicable Incoterm or delivery structure;
- Port of Loading: Where applicable;
- Port of Destination: For CIF/CFR transactions;
- Place of Delivery: Final destination, warehouse, terminal or other receiving facility, where applicable;
- Inspection Requirements: SGS, Intertek, Saybolt, Bureau Veritas, AmSpec or another inspection company acceptable to both parties;
- Payment Terms: DLC, SBLC, MT103, T/T or another mutually agreed payment structure.

For FOB transactions involving a vessel, the Buyer shall provide a copy of the applicable Charter Party Agreement (CP) or other reasonable evidence of the nominated vessel and/or maritime transportation arrangements, when available and appropriate.

5. Verifiable Financial Capacity

The Buyer shall demonstrate sufficient and verifiable financial capacity to complete the proposed transaction.

Depending on the commodity, transaction structure and Seller's requirements, this may include the ability to issue:

- Documentary Letter of Credit (DLC);
- Standby Letter of Credit (SBLC);
- Bank Guarantee (BG);
- MT103 / T/T payment; or
- Another mutually agreed financial instrument or payment mechanism.

Where a letter of credit or other banking instrument is required, it shall be issued or confirmed by a recognized international bank acceptable to the Seller and the relevant financial institutions, subject to customary banking compliance, sanctions screening and transaction requirements.

6. Buyer Mandate / Authorized Representative

If you act as a mandate holder, broker, consultant, representative, intermediary or authorized agent of the Buyer, you shall provide:

- 1. A formal Letter of Authorization or Mandate Letter issued and signed by the Buyer's duly authorized signatory;
- 2. The authorization shall clearly confirm your authority to represent the Buyer, communicate with suppliers, source products, negotiate commercial terms and acquire the commodities requested by the Buyer, within the scope granted by the Buyer;
- 3. A current CIS/KYC package for the representative or the company represented; and
- 4. A color scanned copy of the representative's valid passport or official identity document.

Where applicable, the authorization shall also identify the specific Buyer, the products requested and the representative's authority to negotiate and communicate on behalf of the Buyer.

7. Product-Specific Documentation

Additional documentation may be requested depending on the commodity, country of origin, loading location, destination, transaction volume and delivery procedure.

For example, depending on the transaction, we may require documentation relating to:

- Vessel nomination or Charter Party;
- Port and terminal agreements;
- Import licenses or permits;
- End-user documentation;
- Governmental or institutional purchase authorization;
- Storage or warehouse agreements;
- Product specifications;
- Inspection requirements;
- Regulatory or customs documentation; and
- Other documents necessary to satisfy the requirements of the Seller, terminal, financial institution or applicable governmental authorities.

Purpose of the Prequalification Process

The purpose of these requirements is to establish that we are dealing with a legitimate, qualified and duly authorized Buyer or Buyer representative before either party commits significant time, resources, product allocation, storage, logistics, financial instruments or other transaction-related expenses.

Our objective is to create a transparent and professional process that protects both Buyer and Seller and minimizes unnecessary costs, delays and misunderstandings.

Once the required information has been received and satisfactorily reviewed, we will be in a position to discuss the specific products available, origins, quantities, prices, loading points, delivery destinations, payment terms, inspection procedures and the transaction structure applicable to the Buyer's requirements.

Confidentiality and Use of Information

The information and documents submitted for prequalification will be used for KYC, compliance, due diligence, transaction evaluation and legitimate verification purposes. They will be treated as confidential commercial information, subject to applicable law and any disclosure reasonably necessary to relevant professional advisers, financial institutions, counterparties, terminals, inspection companies, service providers or competent authorities for verification or execution of the transaction.

Submission of documentation does not create any obligation for Patricia Internacional, Corp. or any affiliated company to proceed with a transaction, issue an offer, allocate product, provide financing or enter into a contractual relationship.

We look forward to receiving the requested information and, subject to satisfactory completion of our compliance review, developing a successful and long-term business relationship.

Sincerely,

María Teresa Ferrer Ros

Vice President of Business Strategy / Compliance
